DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: in page 6, line 7 (the description of Fig. 3) the term "stim ulation" is believed to be a typographical error. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections (Presence of possible 112, sixth paragraph, limitations)

Claims 1-8 and 14 are objected to because of the following informalities: the applicant recites the term "charge means" in claim 1, line 7; claim 5, line 12; and claim 14, line 2, respectively. It is not clear to the examiner whether the applicants want to invoke the 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph.

When it is not clear whether a claim limitation should be treated under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, determining the patentability of that claim is difficult because the scope of the claim and the relevance of the prior art cannot be readily determined. Applicants have an opportunity and obligation to define their inventions precisely during proceedings before the PTO. They are required to specify their inventions, consistent with the guidelines described in MPEP 2181, when a claim limitation invokes 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph.

A claim limitation will be interpreted to invoke 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph if it meets the following 3-prong analysis:

Art Unit: 3735

- (A) the claim limitations must use the phrase "means for" or "step for";
- (B) the "means for" or "step for" must be modified by functional language; and
- (C) the phrase "means for" or "step for" must not be modified by sufficient structure, material or acts for achieving the specified function.

If the applicants wish to have the claim limitations under 112, sixth paragraph interpretation, they must: show why the claim language properly invokes 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph; identify the function; and identify the corresponding structure. They must either: (A) amend the claim to include the phrase "means for" or "step for" in accordance with these guidelines; or (B) show that even though the phrase "means for" or "step for" is not used, the claim limitation is written as a function to be performed and does not recite sufficient structure, material, or acts which would preclude application of 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. See Watts v. XL Systems, Inc., 232 F.3d 877, 56 USPQ24 1836 (Fed. Cir. 2000).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitations "selected ones of the molecules" and "said occurrence of energy" in lines 9 and 10, respectively. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "said tissue" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 5 recites the limitations: "said conductor" in line 7; "said electrode" in line 9; "selected ones of the molecules" in line 14; and "said occurrence" in line 15, respectively. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over James US Patent No. 6,328,760 in view of Lerner et al. US Patent No. 5,300,097.

James discloses all of the claimed limitations, except a rectangular-shaped chamber as claimed. However, the applicant's written description fails to clearly teach the criticality of the shape of the chamber (i.e., rectangular chamber) for the claimed invention. Applicant further fails to disclose that the recited shape of the chamber provides an advantage, is used for a particular purpose, or solves a stated problem.

Art Unit: 3735

Nevertheless, the use of rectangular-shaped optical chamber is known in the medical art. Lerner et al. teach a pulsed charge applicator comprising a generally rectangular hollow chamber as presently claimed (see Fig. 2 and col. 3, line 57 to col. 4, line 10).

Therefore, at the time of the applicant's invention, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify James in view of Lerner et al and use a chamber having rectangular shape or other alternative equivalent shape in order to deliver treatment energy to a treatment site. Furthermore, one skilled in the art would have expected Applicant's invention to perform equally well with chambers having different shapes because no advantage is disclosed.
